SYNERGI™ LIFE

Consulting - customized reports

Get information and statistic essentials for your organization. Customize the content and designs of the statistics retrieved from Synergi Life to make it your own.

One of the everyday challenges our customers often face is to make good reports and statistics that are easy to understand. Synergi Life is the perfect tool to collect and store information. The Synergi Life application has a number of predefined ways of showing the data. Let experienced DNV GL consultants help you design your own customized reports.

Examples:

- Company monthly reports - advanced reports that require days of work collecting and organizing data.
- Retrieve and display statistics essential to make quick and vital decisions for the organization.

Synergi Life provides the unique possibility to extract exactly the information you need using the search functionality. Combined with Microsoft Office you have the perfect tool to create customized statistics that is most valuable to your specific organization.

How you do it

- Define report needs
- Define Synergi Life favourites to retrieve this information
- Define a special report in Synergi Life and use macros in Excel to build almost any customized report
- Present report in your preferred format: Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Word, Microsoft PowerPoint, Adobe PDF

Impress your management team today with customized management reports retrieved directly from Synergi Life. Let us advise you on customized management reports.
